LONDON FEARS RENEWAL OF ZEPPELIN RAIDS

▼ ONDON, Jan. 26 .- That the authorities expect a speedy resumption of Zeppelin raids on London and that the danger to which the populace will be exposed on such occasions is greater than ever are indicated by the publication of a police warning to-night

"The increase in offensive protection against hostile aircraft recently provided in the metropolitan district makes it more necessary that the public on the occasion of air raids take cover, so as to be sheltered from falling fragments of shells."

Sits at a Crowded Baltimore Counter and Gives No Tip.

Baltimore, Jan. 26. Mrs. Woodrow Wilson came to Baltimore today, and, in true Democratic style, enjoyed a 30-cent lunchcon.

The President's wife and her sisterial-law, Mrs. Bolling, of Panama, were shopping, and at 2 o'clock entered a lunchroom in North Charles Street. They found seats around the already crowded counter and waited patiently to be served. Mrs. Wilson is fond of Maryland biscuits and ordered some. She also had a chicken cutlet.

When Mrs. Wilson paid the bill at the cashier's deak she asked if it was customary to give tips. She was toid that, while not forbidden, it was not encouraged, and Mrs. Wilson slipped the change back into her purse.
